

Stephen Ministry Resource page

To get to the Stephen Ministry Resource page on the BUMC website, go to

<http://www.broomfieldumc.org/>

Click on "Ministries", then click on "Stephen Ministry", then scroll down and click on the blue box that says "Click here for a list of resources to help you"

Some of the information may be out of date. Melissa Deisher moved a few years ago. She put this together, and worked hard initially to be sure that everything was correct. There are 26 pages of resources - most of which are in Adams, Broomfield, and Boulder counties. They are organized alphabetically. For each topic, the list shows:

- What Category we have placed it in
- The Ministry Name
- Their Phone Number
- A Contact Name if we have one
- Their Address
- A link to their Website
- A brief description of Services they provide

We have not personally vetted any of these resources, and we cannot vouch for them or recommend them. There are no ratings. It is not intended to be an Angie's List - just a collection of information we have located as we train our Stephen Ministers, or as we are providing care to someone.

If you click on the Magnifying Glass in the top left hand of any BUMC web page, that will bring up a "Site Search" page. If you enter a keyword there (for example, "grief"), the "Search Results" page will contain a link to the "Stephen Ministry Resource Page" if that keyword appears somewhere on the resources page.

Once you are on the "Stephen Minister Resource Page", you can click on a letter of the alphabet to quickly take you to that topic, or just scroll through all the listed categories. You can also use the "Find on this page" feature of your browser to go directly to that keyword. In Microsoft Windows:

- from the Menu tool bar,
- go to Edit,

Stephen Ministry Resource page

- scroll down to "Find on this page", and click "Enter".
That will bring up a toolbar with "Find:" followed by a box where you can enter your keyword. If, for instance, you enter "grief" here, it will take you directly to that topic, and you will find 25 highlighted entries.

If you would be interested in maintaining this information going forward, please let me know.