Synopsis: "You know they say-life's a circus!" The parable that Jesus told about the loving father and two sons comes to life. Step right up and meet the Parabalini Family Circus....the father Antonio, the older son AJ, and his little brother Giorgio. Chorus Parts

A Chorus member in a musical is a person who is an intricate part of the story being told through song. Without the chorus, the story would miss the connection between the scenes and the entire feel for what is happening on the journey! Chorus members will also have an opportunity to auditions for solos, song leaders, and small group ensembles. Chorus members are non-speaking characters on stage who also reinforce the story being told. Or, a chorus member may just be part of the fun by singing and dancing! Please reinforce to your child that God is the audience. We are not performing for the audience because they are also participants in the worship we are leading. A chorus member is just as important as a person who has a microphone.
