Project Valentine | Item collection now through Sunday, February 2

The UWFaith Lydia Circle is collecting items for Project Valentine gift bags. This is a service project that reaches out to cancer patients receiving infusions and delivers gift bags on Valentine's Day. Please drop off all items in the Sanctuary or Chapel Lobbies. A complete list of items needed can be found at The Summit or online: <https://bit.ly/project-valentine>.

Room for Everyone: Transforming Our Housing Crisis into Housing Justice | January 30 (6-8pm at Presbyterian Church of Broomfield)

Join elected leaders, community housing advocates, and our Broomfield neighbors for a collaborative event that will inspire us to turn Room for Everyone from an idea into a reality. Please RSVP at: <https://bit.ly/roomforeveryone-25>

Worship in the Chapel: Sunday, 1/26 and Sunday, 2/2

We invite you to join us for worship in the Chapel for the next two Sundays, 1/26 and 2/2, while we recarpet the Sanctuary floor. An opportunity to write messages or leave scripture on the floor before recarpeting will be available during Community Time next Sunday, 1/26. There are many opportunities to help with this endeavor. Please visit: <https://bit.ly/recarpeting-25>

message notes

Permission to ... Cry Out

- How can I align my faith in a God of justice with a world that is filled with injustice and horrible suffering?
- God lets them
- It is precisely faith that makes us ask "why," and "how long?"
- Crying out to God acknowledges that suffering is real and that our faith is strong enough to hold both pain and trust.

Community Time today, Sunday, 1/19
